◆ ANDREW ZITZMANN ◆

Canada. Big. Cold. Lots of nature. Everyone wants to visit it. But not many people know that it has a double identity, because of its English and French cultures. In this lecture, Andrew Zitzmann will introduce you to the biculturalism of his home province of Quebec, Canada.

In addition, two students (Ayaka Satome & Yuki Nakanishi) who recently visited Canada will present their views on Canadian Culture.

Andrew Zitzmann has lived in Japan for over 16 years. He has been teaching at various universities in the Kitakyushu area, including Seinan Jo Gakuin. His interests include gardening, cooking, and teacher education..
